Councilmember Rose Herrera Invites the Community to the Lake Cunningham Skate Park Major Donors Recognition Event and Women's Skate It Up Contest

SAN JOSE, CA – Councilmember Rose Herrera, who has led a successful effort to maintain funding to keep the Lake Cunningham Regional Skate Park (LCRSP) open and staffed, will be recognizing major sponsors and supporters of the LCRSP on Saturday, January 28, 2012 at the skate park located at 2305 S White Road, San José, CA. 95109. Major Sponsors who will be recognized at the event are The Health Trust, First 5 and Valley Medical Center Foundation. The program begins at 1:00 pm and will include press opportunities to speak to and photograph/video the Councilmember and Funders as well as contestants.

Following the Sponsor Recognition Event, the City of San José will be hosting a GRO (Girls Rider Organization) Women's Skate It Up Skateboard Contest at the Lake Cunningham Skate Park (LCRSP). The event will include live music, female skaters from California and elsewhere. This event is open to the public. Click here for event flyer:
